Buenos Aires restaurant in South Croydon - an Argentinian steak house serving excellent steaks. The restaurant was petite, but it was comfortable and a good atmosphere prevailed. Service was fab especially when considering there were 2 staff, the chef and the waitress. The waitress was slick and friendly. Steaks were cooked to perfection. All of my party enjoyed their steaks and some decent Malbec. Recommended for meat lovers. Very enjoyable.

Smashing!! Second time I have been here. Service was quick and friendly. I was unsure if I could eat a 500g of steak but I managed it as it was sublime.

Buenos Aires in Croydon is a fantastic place for the carnivore - the steaks come in 3 sizes, and the quality is fantastic. I had the ribeye, and it was juicy, with the fat almost translucent, and with almost no gristle. The restaurant is tiny, and was busy on the night we went - but the service was swift and professional. One of the best steaks I've had in ages.

Visited Buenos Aires in Croydon after it was recommended by a few people. Small restaurant with only 7 tables. Very friendly staff, happy to answer any questions. Appetizers were a little small, not really big enough to share. Steak was fantastic!!! 9oz filet was cooked perfectly and came with great mashed potatoes. Roquefort sauce was a little overpowering, whereas peppercorn did not have enough pepper! Overall, great dinner - you get what you pay for.

Buenos Aires Restaurant is a few minutes' walk from the centre of Croydon, and is small enough to walk straight past if you've not been there before, but now I know where it is, I'll definitely be going back! It's all about the beef (veggies needn't bother), but what amazing steaks! Real melt in the mouth stuff. We had a very warm welcome, and the bill was really very reasonable, less than £30 a head including service.

Very pleasant evening out, busy for a Wednesday which made for a lovely atmosphere in the restaurant which is cosily proportioned. Food was very good, the steak cooked exactly as ordered and very good quality meat. Definitely recommended.

BUENOS AIRES RESTAURANT IN SOUTH CROYDON. DINNER FOR FOUR. WE HAD STEAKS FOR THREE OF US WHICH WERE DONE AS ORDERED AND WE REALLY ENJOYED THEM,THE FOURTH MEMBER OF OUR PARTY DOES NOT EAT RED MEAT AND THERE WAS ONLY ONE ITEM ON THE MENU FOR HER TO EAT WHICH WAS GRILLED CHICKEN BREAST WHICH WAS JUST LIKE ANY OTHER GRILLED CHICKEN SHE SAID,NOTHING SPECIAL. THE DESSERTS WERE JUST AVERAGE. THE WINE WAS NICE AND THE SERVICE WAS GOOD. THE RESTAURANT WAS FULL AND THE AMBIENCE WAS GOOD.

Compact & classy. My friend & I had the 3 course for £15 offer. There were, I think, 5 choices of starter & main & 4 desserts, so reasonable amount of choice tho best if you like steak. I like mine rare & this was nicely cooked, it was a basic Steak & chips but none the worse for that. We both had pancakes for dessert & they were very nice. This is a small restaurant & the toilets were adequate & clean if not luxurious. The waitress was cheerful; polite & very helpful.

Nice little restaurant, definitely better than going to a big chain of restaurant. The food was good but i was expecting a little bit better on how my steak was cooked. I have asked for medium rare and it came medium / well done.The portion were ok. I choose the £15 menu. I will definitely go back but will not choose a special offer and go for a la carte menu. In general, a good small restaurant. Ideal for a date or couple.
